

edge estimate: $B_\theta \sim \mu_0 I_p / (2\pi a)$, so the restoring term goes as I_p^2 while the drive goes as p
This is a SCALING argument for which way each term pushes. It is not the MHD stability calculation, and it does not by itself give a numerical beta limit.

Explanatory sketch; schematic, not to scale.